

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FUNERAL SERVICE INTERN LICENSURE (FSI - Direct)

Application Fee - $200.00 - per license type

All licensing information provided is public information

On behalf of the New Mexico Board of Funeral Services, we are pleased you have chosen New Mexico as a place to practice funeral services.

Please review the rules regarding licensure requirements. If you do not qualify, you will not be granted licensure and you will forfeit your application fee.

Upon receipt of the attached application and the required $200.00 application fee (per license type) you will be sent a status letter indicating any missing documentation for the completion of your application. Once all documentation is received your application will be sent to the Board's Application Committee or designee for approval. If your application meets all requirements and is approved by the committee your license will be issued in three working days of the committee's approval.

Applicants that are not approved by the committee or designee will be presented at the next regularly scheduled Board of Funeral Services board meeting. The Board generally meets quarterly throughout the year. Applicants who go before the New Mexico Board of Funeral Services should expect a period of approximately three months for a decision (approval/denial).

Please inform the board of any address, phone number or email address changes. Changes can be communicated to the board office in writing by U.S. Mail, fax or e-mail. If you have any questions, contact the Board office at (505) 476-4622 or e-mail Funeral.Board@state.nm.us
