

Consideration for Board Opinion: Sleep Related Breathing Disorders

Treatment of obstructive sleep apnea and snoring with custom and non-custom oral appliances and other surgical and non-surgical techniques falls within the scope of dentistry and the same standards and rules apply as with other removable appliances and dental procedures.

The board also recognizes the American Dental Association's "Role of Dentistry in the Treatment of Sleep Related Breathing Disorders" for guidelines and recommendations for dentists that treat these conditions.