Cannabis Application or License Adverse Action Supporting Documentation

Required if the business has had an application denied or disciplinary action taken against their license in another jurisdiction. A copy of all documentation detailing the alleged violations and explanation of the action taken (cannabis application or licensure denial, suspension, revocation, surrender or other disciplinary action), the status of the action, copy of the charging document and final order and statement of corrective action taken by the applicant.

The following is required for EACH controlling person of the business. A controlling person is any person who controls a financial or voting interest of 10% or more of, or an officer or board member of, a cannabis establishment; and does not include a bank or licensed lending institution.

New Mexico Department of Public Safety (DPS) Background Check

Please complete an “Authorization for Release of Information” form for each controlling person. All forms shall be signed by the controlling person, notarized, and submitted to the New Mexico Department of Public Safety (DPS) with a fee in the amount of $15.00. The DPS will provide you with their findings, which you will be required to upload in the online licensing portal when you submit your application for a cannabis license. Please DO NOT send these forms to the CCD Office; they will be returned to the applicant, delaying the process.

Felony Conviction Documents

Has any controlling person has been convicted of any of the following?

- Felony conviction involving fraud, deceit, or embezzlement.
- Felony conviction for hiring, employing, or otherwise using a person younger than eighteen years of age to:
 - Prepare for sale, transport, or carry a substance; or
 - Sell, give away or offer to sell a controlled substance to any person.
- Felony offense for the possession, use, manufacture, distribution or dispensing or possession with the intent to manufacture, distribute or dispense a controlled substance, which no longer includes cannabis.

For any “Yes” answers, the controlling person shall provide an explanation including the following:

- The date of the conviction.
- Date of incarceration, probation, and parole.
- Description of the crime/offense.
- Explanation as to the controlling person’s rehabilitation since the conviction.
- Court documents confirming the date of the conviction, the offense(s), dates of incarceration and probation or parole (i.e. Decision and Order, Settlement, Plea, etc.); evidence of rehabilitation, including personal or professional references, completion of treatment, or employment records; and any other supporting documentation.
