Application for Mental Health Counselor (LMHC)

1. Click the “Select” button to the right of the Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) license type.

2. At any time of the application, you can select the “Save for later” option to save a draft of the application that you can return to and complete at your convenience. This will ensure you don’t lose any progress you have made if you can’t complete the application in one sitting.

3. On the Pre-Screening, you will answer questions pertaining to your reciprocity and Military status.

- a. If you do hold a Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) license outside of New Mexico and select “Yes”, you will be prompted with another question regarding your Military Status. If you have any Military associations matching the question, select the “Yes” radio button. Otherwise, you can select “No”. You may then proceed using the “Start Application” button.

Pre-Screening

To start your application answer the following questions. Once the questions are answered, you will see the requirements necessary to complete your application.

* Do you hold an active Mental Health Counselor license that is current and in good standing, issued by another jurisdiction (other than New Mexico)?

☒ Yes ☐ No

 Jurisdiction means another state, territory or foreign country and does not include New Mexico.

* Are you a military service member, veteran, or the spouse of a person who is serving in the United States, a surviving spouse of a military service member who at the time of the member's death was serving on active duty, or a qualifying child/dependent of a military service member?

☐ Yes ☒ No

 Military service member means a person who is:

- o serving in the armed forces of the United States as an active-duty member, or in an active reserve component of the armed forces of the United States, including the national guard;
- o the spouse of a person who is serving in the armed forces of the United States or in an active reserve component of the armed forces of the United States, including the national guard, or a surviving spouse of a member who at the time of the member's death was serving on active duty; or
- o the child of a military service member if the child is also a dependent of that person for federal income tax purposes; and

Veteran means a person who has received an honorable discharge or separation from military service.

Introduction

Thank you for starting your application for a license with the New Mexico Regulation and Licensing Department. This licensing portal will guide you through the licensing requirements and allow you to save your work and return to your application if you do not complete it all at one time.

This application will confirm that each individual applying meets all requirements for licensure set by either state statute or regulations governing the profession. These licensing requirements, along with continuing education, regular renewals, and compliance monitoring assist to safeguard the profession and certify that licensees meet minimum education, training, and health and safety standards to ensure public trust.

If you have further questions regarding licensure or the Regulation and Licensing Department Boards and Commissions Division, please visit the website at www.rld.nm.gov/boards-and-commissions/. Each Board and Commission have their own webpage with specific requirements for licensure, continuing education, renewals, public meeting information, and a direct phone number and email to their respective administrator and other support staff who can be reached for help.

If you are ready to apply, please click the Save & Next button to begin your application.

Please ensure that you are applying for the correct license, permit or exam approval. Incorrect applications or those submitted in error may result in delays or additional application fees. Please note all fees are non-refundable even if the application is denied or withdrawn.
