To start your application answer the following questions. Once the questions are answered, you will see the requirements necessary to complete your application.

* Do you hold an active Polygraph Examiner license that is current and in good standing, issued by another jurisdiction (other than New Mexico)?

☐ Yes
☒ No

 Jurisdiction means another state, territory or foreign country and does not include New Mexico.

Polygraph Examiner Application Requirements

The Regulation and Licensing Department may issue a license to an applicant who submits a completed application and meets the following requirements:

- Proof of licensure for a minimum of two years.
 - Applicants who have not been licensed for a minimum of two years immediately prior to the date of application must complete a probationary operational competency period consisting of at least six (6) months, under the supervision of a New Mexico Licensed Polygraph Examiner. Upon successful completion of a written examination, a provisional license may be issued. During the probationary period:
 - the polygraph examinations administered by the provisional licensee shall be reviewed for operational competency by a licensed polygraph examiner approved by the department to serve as a sponsor for the provisional licensee;
 - the provisional licensee must conduct a minimum of 30 polygraph examinations, a minimum of five of which must be examinations, two of the "specific" examinations, and three of the "screening type" examinations must be performed in the presence of the sponsor, or recorded in their entirety for review by the sponsor. In the case of an applicant who conducts only "specific" examinations, a minimum of five "specific" examinations must be conducted in the presence of the sponsor, or recorded in their entirety for review by the sponsor.
 - The sponsor must submit a progress report regarding the progress of the provisional licensee every 60 days on forms provided by the department.
 - If an unsatisfactory report is submitted, the sponsor shall review the polygraph examinations administered by the provisional licensee for operational competency. Upon recommendation of the sponsor, the department may revoke the provisional license or take such action as it deems necessary to assure operational competency.
 - Applicants who have a current active license to practice polygraphy in another jurisdiction whose standards are equal to or greater than those in New Mexico for a minimum of two years immediately preceding the date of application, and no pending or formal disciplinary actions issued against the license in the last five years, are not required to complete the probationary period.
- Pass the Polygraph Examiner jurisprudence examination.
- Receipt with registration number for fingerprint criminal history report.
 - For additional information and instructions to submit your fingerprints to request an FBI and NM State criminal history report see the Regulation and Licensing Department website under the Boards and Commissions - Private Investigations: Applications and Forms webpage (www.rld.nm.gov).
- Payment of application fee - all fees are non-refundable.
