In order to qualify as an instructor for security guards under 61-27B-16 (Level 1), 61-27B-17 (Level 2), or 61-27B-18 (Level 3) NMSA 1978, you must provide the department with proof of professional certification and requirements specific to each level of instruction.

Check the box for the level(s) you are applying for:

Level 1 ☐

Level one instructor requirements: Applicants shall submit proof of instructor certification related to the level one training curriculum, issued by a law enforcement academy (LEA), a recognized federal government entity, United States military branch, or the federal law enforcement training center (FLETC). The certification submitted must have been issued within three years preceding the date the application is submitted.

Level two instructor requirements: Applicants must submit proof of approval as a level one instructor and, shall submit proof of specific weapon instructor certification related to the level two training curriculum, issued by the weapon manufacturer. The certification must have been issued within three years preceding the date the application is submitted.

Level 3 ☐

Level three instructor requirements: Applicants shall submit proof of a firearms instructor certification issued by a law enforcement academy (LEA), a recognized federal government entity, United States military branch, the federal law enforcement training center (FLETC), or the national rifle association law enforcement activities division. The certification must have been issued within three years preceding the date the application is submitted.

Every three years from the approval date or as requested by the department, the instructors must resubmit certification that takes place within three years preceding the renewal request in order to remain approved.

Anyone approved as an instructor must complete a minimum of four hours of continuing education specific to instructor development and case law specific to security every three years from the approval date. Continuing education may be provided by the department and subject to periodic review. Continuing education for instructors shall not count toward continuing education credit required for renewal of an individual licensure or certification pursuant to 16.48.6.8 NMAC.
