ANTI-HARASSMENT AND NON-SOLICITATION POLICY

The New Mexico Real Estate Commission is committed in all areas to providing an instructional environment that is free from harassment. Harassment based upon an individual's sex, race, ethnicity, national origin, age, religion or any other legally protected characteristics will not be tolerated. Any instructor certified by the New Mexico Real Estate Commission and instructing a qualified pre-licensing or continuing education course, including sponsors and sponsor's employees/vendors, are expected and required to abide by this policy. No student or course attendee will be adversely affected as a result of bringing complaints of unlawful harassment.

Sexual harassment is behavior of a sexual nature that is unwelcome and offensive to the person or persons it is targeted toward. Examples of harassing behavior may include unwanted physical contact, foul language of an offensive sexual nature, sexual propositions, sexual jokes or remarks, obscene gestures, and displays of pornographic or sexually explicit pictures, drawings, or caricatures

Reporting Harassment

If a pre-licensed student or licensee attending any real estate course approved by the New Mexico Real Estate Commission feels that he or she has been harassed on the basis of his or her sex, race, national origin, ethnic background, or any other legally protected characteristic, or believes he or she has been a target of sexual harassment, they should immediately report the matter to the New Mexico Real Estate Commission Education Administrator. If that person is not available, or if the student or licensee feels it would be unproductive to inform that person, the student or licensee should immediately contact the New Mexico Real Estate Commission Executive Director. Once the matter has been reported it will be promptly investigated and any necessary corrective action will be taken where appropriate. All complaints of unlawful harassment will be handled in as discreet and confidential a manner as is possible under the circumstances.

Non-Solicitation of Licensees

Any instructor certified by the New Mexico Real Estate Commission and instructing a qualified pre-licensing or continuing education course, or the sponsor of that course and/or instructor, will not, directly or indirectly, approach, solicit, entice or attempt to approach, solicit or entice any of their course attendees to leave the brokerage with whom the licensee is associated, either during the instructional period or subsequently through information gained by the instructor through the pre-licensee's or licensee's registration for the course.

Corrective Action

Any instructor or sponsor found to be engaging in improper harassing behavior or solicitation will be subject to disciplinary action, including the possible termination of instructor or sponsor status with the New Mexico Real Estate Commission.
